

```
Students = {
    "arnv" : 2,
    "vansh" : 3,
    "soham" : 0,
    "reyansh" : 0
}

Books = {
    "Hail Mary" : 5,
    "Artimis" : 3,
    "The Martian" : 5,
    "Dune" : 6
}

#average number of books borrowed by all students

totalbooks = sum(Students.values())
average = totalbooks / len(Students)
print("average number of books borrowed by all students is:", average)

#books with highest borrowing
highest = max(Books, key=Books.get) print("highest borrowed book is", highest) print("most frequently borrowed book is", highest) lowest = min(Books, key=Books.get) print("lowest borrowed book is", lowest)

count = 0
for num in Students.values():
    if num == 0:
        count = count + 1

print("Number of students who have not borrowed any book are", count)

"""
Output:

(base) cg@cg-ThinkCentre-neo-50s-Gen-3:~/arnv$ python3 library.py
average number of books borrowed by all students is: 1.25
highest borrowed book is Dune
most frequently borrowed book is Dune lowest borrowed book is Artimis
Number of students who have not borrowed any book are 2
(base) cg@cg-ThinkCentre-neo-50s-Gen-3:~/arnv$
"""
```